KIDNEYS SELDOMFREE FROM POISON

Clean Them Out and Backache, Sciatica and Bladder Troubles Go.

It's might close to the truth to say that there are ten thousand apparently healthy people in America to day, who will have Bright's disease, dropsy or some form of kidney disease within two months.

If you have backache, or the slightest suggestion of backache, don't take chances. Get a 50 cent bottle of Thompson's Balsoma to-day and give your kidney's a thorough cleaning. They probably need it. If they don't, Thompson's Balsoma is a god tonic anyway and will do you good.

Thompson's Balsoma is guaranteed by the Court to cure kidney disease.

HOW TO KNOW WHERE TO BUY FURNITURE AND CARPETS

(This Advertisement Will Teach You a Safe Shopping System.)

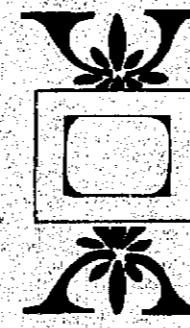

Find out which retail furniture dealer in your town has been chosen by the biggest and best manufacturers to act as their agent in this town. No matter whether you live North, East, West or South, this is the one safe way to shop.

In Western Pennsylvania the Aaron store has been selected as agent—not by only a few of the really great manufacturers but by ALL of the really great ones. It is a remarkable demonstration because agents are chosen with extreme care.

The Aaron store is so chosen because it is a responsible institution; not a fly-by-night. It not only guarantees everything it sells but it does a business TWENTY TIMES GREATER IN VOLUME than any other furniture store in the county.

This huge volume places the Aaron store in the position of being able to do its buying in CARLOAD LOTS; which, in turn, results in lowest retail prices on highest quality goods. This is an ironclad rule of business, a thing that you should take advantage of.

Add to this the fact that your credit is as good as gold here; that our store is convenient in every detail; that every department is in charge of its own special expert; that our staff is comprised of born furniture men—and you see why the Aaron store is "ideal."

We never stoop to exaggerations in our advertising. We deal plainly and squarely ALL the time. The great manufacturers know this and that's why they have ALL chosen us as their representative in this territory. Take the manufacturers' tip. It's always safest!

FRIDAY EVENING, APR. 26, 1912.

That at the Fighting Stage.
President Taft has reached the fighting stage. He has patiently and even nicely born the taunts and innuendos of his former friend and sponsor until their utter lack of truth has stirred him to resentment and retaliation, and from the corner into which he has been crowded he is delivering some crushing volleys.

He charges Colonel Roosevelt with having distorted his public utterances willfully misrepresented him and eliminated from their relations his boasted policy of the Square Deal. He also calls attention to the notorious fact that the ex-president is selected but does not prefer to be a candidate for the American people not to be a candidate for a Third Term. On this account alone, he says, Roosevelt should not be the candidate of any party. If it is third term, why not a fourth and as many more as will be contained in the span of the Colonel's mortal existence?

President Taft is firmly convinced for other reasons than precedent that Colonel Roosevelt should not again be chosen Chief Executive. He says:

One who so lightly regards it constitutional principles, and especially the independence of the judiciary, as to be so naturally impatient of legal restraint and of due legal process, and who has so misinterpreted what liberty by law is, could not safely be entrusted with such a responsible function. I say this notwithstanding that I give it with the full conviction of its truth.

While the views of President Taft in this regard are open to the charge of prejudices they nevertheless voice the opinions of the intelligent citizens of the country, who think for them selves and are not swayed by winds of popular pressure.

It is possible that President Taft would have been further along in the race if he had reached the fighting stage sooner.

The doors are to be opened May 13 and already about 15 contractors have made inquiry about the plans and specifications. GOLD DUST makes dish-washing easy

The use of a little Gold Dust in your dish-water will make your dishes whiter, sweeter and cleaner than they ever can be without it. Unlike soap, Gold Dust does more than clean the surface. It goes deep after germs and hidden food particles, and sterilizes everything it touches.

Gold Dust does all the hard part of the work without your assistance, because it begins to dissolve and clean the moment it touches the water.

When you have to wash dishes 1095 times a year, the Gold Dust method of saving half your time and half your labor means something.

Gold Dust is sold in 5c size and large packages. The large package means greater economy.

THE SOISSON.

"CASEY JONES." The big comedy hit "Casey Jones" will be at the Sisson theatre Monday, April 23. The Newcomerstown, (O.) News speaks in the following complimentary terms of the attraction: "Among the really meritorious attractions which have appeared at the Newcomerstown Opera House, the Sisson has made a bigger hit than 'Mabel H. Norton's "Casey Jones,'" which played to a good sized audience last Thursday evening, March 11th. The leading characters, Bert Bentle, Lew Nelson, Franklin W. Fox, Florence Gordon and Lilly Hughes interpret the play with artistic vividness and make it one of the liveliest comedies which has ever appeared here. Manager Franklin W. Fox of the Casey Jones Company, by his clever advertising tactics and indomitable energy, literally forces the public to furnish him with crowded houses, and declares that the popularity of the show will easily eclipse that of the song of the same title."

THE TITANIC DISASTER. Moving pictures of the wreck of the Titanic will be presented at the Sisson theatre this afternoon and tonight. Pratty can set also given away.

Wake Up With a "Dark Brown Taste?"

Get Rid of It! Run for OLIVE TABLETS

There isn't the slightest need to wake up any morning with a "brown mouth." Gosh! No need to describe it.

Dr. Edwards has made "brown mouth" a thing of the past in thousands of homes with his little Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Anyone who takes Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets the moment he suspects his liver and bowels never has a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a pimply face, constipation or any other form of bowel or liver disorder.

Take one just the moment you suspect you are constipated or that your liver is out of order.

Thousands take one at bedtime every night just to keep the bowels regular, the liver in order, the mouth clean and the breath pure and sweet.

Olive Tablets are made of pure vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil.

Dr. Edwards spent 17 years in practice and in laboratory experiments before he perfected Olive Tablets.

Why don't you try them instead of the acid and castor oil mixture that grips and only affects temporary relief?

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O. Dr. F. M. Edwards, President.

Physicians Delighted by What New Tonic, Tona Vita, Has Done

Tired out, run-down half sick people are not so numerous as they were a year ago. "Tona Vita" the greatest modern tonic has proved as successful in the United States as in Europe, and many thousands of Americans have been built up and restored to health by this medicine.

The physicians who introduced "Tona Vita" in this country are enthusiastic over the remarkable success of the medicine, and those who have been restored to health are also glad to tell what their experience has been.

A. A. Clarke is the agent for Tona Vita in Connellsville. Your money will be returned to you if you are dissatisfied with the tonic. The Approved Formula Co., Dayton, O.

"I had no opportunity to take sufficient rest and during the past year this has told on me. My nerves began to trouble me. I have not been sleeping well and my appetite and digestion were not as they should be. I tried castor and did not have the vitality to withstand a hard day's work as formerly. This tonic Tona Vita was recommended to me and I decided to give it a test. I have been greatly benefited in health and strength by this medicine. I sincerely believe the tonic to be highly meritorious. Judging from my own experience."

Do you lack strength and vitality? Do you take cold easily and sleep poorly? Are you nervous and depressed? If so, you are a sufferer from nervous debility and you should at once get a bottle of "Tona Vita" and see how quickly it will build you up.

CHAPTER XXXI.

The Club.
I didn't go in to luncheon.
Instead, I lay down up in my room, wondering what Jenkins would think when he saw Foxy Grandpa a guest with me under this roof, and wondering also what I ought to do, or if I should do anything. I came to the conclusion finally that I wouldn't say anything for the present, for I had about all the complications I could carry.

Presently I went down to the livingroom, where they were all assembled, and my heart leaped as I thought I detected a brightening in Frances' face as I entered.

Billings was waving the trumpet away with his fat hand. "Take it away," he said. "I hate bugs."

"But, Jacky," said the trumpet pleadingly, "I think it's phantastic glorious."

"I don't care if it's a giraffe," said
Billings rudely.

But the professor was already across the room to the rescue.

"Hai not a gindon," he said ani-tiatedly, as he snatched over the little greenish thing in the trumpet's hand.
Observe the shortened prothorax and metathorax are—"

"And metathorax," chimed in the trump, her head close to his.
"Hence—"

"It is a phanous carmine," said the professor positively.

By Jove, it looked to me like what we used to call a dung beetle!

And then the two cronies went out in the sun with butterfly nets, and Frances and I drifted out to our pavilion overlooking the broad sweep of the Tappan Zee. As yet, her father had said nothing to me, but I knew that the blow might fall any moment.
Only the arrival of the trumpet's father had so far saved me. And though I had gone right ahead violating his jolly injunction about Frances, I kept sort of parole with him by avoiding any discussion of things that I knew would have interested my darling the most—that is, our love and our future.
Later we took a drive through Sleepy Hollow and the Pocantico Hills. But though we grew better and better acquainted every minute, I couldn't help feeling devilish disappointed, for never once did she ever call me "Dicky." I wondered moodily whether her brother had told her yet of his plans for me.

In the evening, the younger brother showed up at dinner, but sulked, which I thought under the circumstances was about the most considerate thing he could have done.

Once during the evening, Billings, who had been talking with the professor, turned to me. "By the way, Dicky—those pajamas, you know—what did you do with them this morning?" He and the professor whispered aside; then Billings turned back. "Gray paper parcel—um—you know?"

"Know? Dash it, of course I know, but I—"

"Wax, I have them now," came quietly from my companion, "thanks to Mr. Lightfoot. He gave them to me this morning."

"Gave them to you! gasped Billings.
He whispered to me, "But the rubies, you cuckoo—you didn't give her those!"

"Rubles?" Dash it, I had to think hard to remember what had become of the rubies. But I got the idea.

"Why, the professor has those," I reminded him. "The red pajamas, you know—don't you remember?" I drew him aside.

Billings stared. "But he says he returned them," he exclaimed, cutting an old sideways look at the professor, who was talking to Frances and the trump. Billings frowned.

"Ain't seen them," I said carelessly, for I wanted to talk to her.
"Oh, dash the rubies—wait till morning!"

Billings looked sourly at the professor and went off and sat alone. He seemed put out about the old boy not returning the garments. Never seemed to occur to him that the professor was a devilish busy and absent-minded old chap. Might not return them for a month. I know that.

"Oh, really, Frances?" the trump was saying. "How exceedingly nice of you, don't?" The professor was occupied for the moment with a moth.
"I hope I won't frighten you in them as you say your maid was frightened at you. If pajamas are unbecoming to you, why just imagine me in them!"

By Jove, I was devilish glad I was not supposed to hear, for I didn't want to be required to imagine it. But as for them being unbecoming to my darling—well, I know she knew what I thought.

Later, when the evening had shadowed off and the ladies had left us, we sat in the smoking room talking till late.
I was astonished to find Foxy Grandpa a devilish entertaining and clever—not a bad sort at all. He seemed to have no recollection of me at all, and therefore no grudges. I had made up my mind by this time I wasn't going to marry the trump, no matter what came or what Billings wanted, and I would tell him so in the morrow. But whoever did marry her—and it looked

OPEN EVENINGS

Meyersdale.

MEYERSDALE, April 26.—Miss Emma McRae of Ellwood, was a town girl yesterday.

Air and Mrs. Robert Miller and two children, who went to Washington, D.C., a week ago to meet Mr. Miller, who spent the past three months in Cuba and Florida for his health, returned home last evening.

Mr. Berkley, Esq., of Somerset, returned on No. 11 yesterday morning from a business visit to the east, stopping over between trains in Meyersdale. Mr. Berkley is one of the delegates to the National Convention from this Congressional District.

J. T. Atherton, proprietor of the Hotel Zink, went down to Pittsburgh yesterday morning to attend court as a witness.

Billings wanted his father to try my special import of cigarettes, so I sent
the cub hastily, as he waved aside
Jenkins' offer to bring some down.

And when he saw Foxy

Grandpa calmly sitting there by me, pulling at a straw, he almost lost his balance. But I shook my head with certainty.

"Ever you no before—eh?" asked
the cub hastily, as he waved aside
the cigarettes Jenkins extended. "Last Wednesday night—remember?"

"Yes, sir," replied Jenkins, hesitatingly. Then he rolled an eye at me and corrected himself hastily but firmly:

"No, sir; I don't recall ever seeing you before, sir."

Of course, I knew he had not, but the cub got up with a sour frown.

Then, with a murmured gruff apology, he withdrew, saying he had a headache and was going to bed. And, by Jove, what a look he gave me from the door!

"Aight!" ejaculated some one at length, just as the professor finished his jolly rum but interesting yarn of adventure in Tibet. We all rose and I was answering a challenge of Billings' for a Sunday morning game of billiards, when all of a sudden a scream rang out from somewhere above.
Then came a greater commotion, two voices raised in rapid and excited colloquy. On top of this another scream, louder and more piercing—a woman's call for help.
